

TOP DOCTORS

LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES' PHYSICIANS ARE A UNIQUE GROUP. Not only do they help our society live healthier, they also happen to be good businesspeople with great business stories. That's why doctors are no strangers to the pages of the Los Angeles Business Journal.

Whatever the economic climate, there is always a need for good healthcare – and the doctors are the essential ingredient of an industry that is always in demand. It makes sense that we'd pause at least once per year to celebrate their individual and achievements.

We have set aside this special section of the Los Angeles Business Journal to shine a spotlight on some of those doctors that have made particular strides in helping the people in Los Angeles receive better healthcare. Whatever the effort – be it saving lives, conducting pivotal research, or managing the preventive care efforts of our region's hectic citizens...it is all appreciated!
